

Certified Corporate Professional Coach Training

Who is it for?

This 14-day course spread over 9+ months (2 days per month) is designed for anyone who works with people and wants to grow their skill set to better accompany those people to achieve the best of themselves in their professional and personal lives.

It's for you, if you are a leader, manager, entrepreneur, trainer, consultant, and/or developing coach; whether from an SME or a large corporates, from a family business, from private or public sector or a charity or NGO...

If you want to develop your coaching posture and skills in a truly multicultural nurturing and challenging environment... this training is for you.

What will you be able to do at the end of the course?

- Acquire a conscious coaching stance
- Ask powerful questions
- Listen intuitively and reframe client narrative
- Give and receive feedback that moves both you and the client forward
- Access a coaching toolkit
- Clarify a request for coaching with your client and key stakeholders
- Conduct three-party launch and exit meetings
- Develop your coaching practice

How will you learn to do that?

This course is fully virtual (via Zoom), working on real life topics you and other participants want to work on. We expect participants to practice in between the modules (where possible also meeting each other in person).

Do first: The course provides you with ample opportunity to practice coaching skills through exercises in pairs and groups of 3 or 4.

Review second: You will receive continuous feedback from your peers, video recordings, clients and trainers

Generalize third: Your trainers will input the key concepts, theories needed as a professional coach, and our experience of working with teams and leaders in companies over several decades.
